

Fill in the gaps, as in the example. (Use SO, NEITHER or NOR and the correct verb form)

e.g. I am having my hair cut tomorrow. - So am I. My fringe's getting very long.

1. I didn't go shopping last week. - _____ John. I didn't have any money to spare.
2. I've got some great news! - _____ we. We've been accepted at university.
3. Joan has never won an award. - _____ Michael. It's a little disappointing.
4. I'd like to help out at the homeless shelter this week. - _____ I. Could we go together?
5. They'll be visiting the Natural History Museum this week. - _____ we. We're going on a field trip and we need some information for our science lesson.
6. We shan't have a dance class tonight. - _____ the girls. The dance instructor is ill.
7. I'm not friends with Kylie anymore. - _____ we. She's such a selfish person.
8. I really liked that documentary on space exploration. - _____ I. It was very interesting.
9. I'll never invite Margaret to the party again. - _____ I. She behaved so badly.
10. I need to see a dentist. - _____ Kate. She had a bad toothache yesterday.
11. I wasn't expecting to see you here. - _____ I. I'm so glad you came, though.

