Transition words in cause-effect paragraph

Join the pair of sentences using the transition words or connectors given in parentheses. Use capital letter at the beginning of the sentence and period at the end.

1. Bob was late. He missed the bus. (As a result)

2. It was raining heavily. We postponed the match. (due to)

3. She was sick yesterday. She didn't come to work. (because of)

4. My car broke down yesterday. I went to work by bus. (so)

5. He was driving fast. He had an accident. (consequently)

Write the effect in the following sentences. Remember to use connectors or transition words.

1. I'm tired

2. I'm lost

3. Stephany won't get to the meeting on time

4. It's my mother's birthday