First answer the question: Is the sentence a simple, compound or complex sentence?

Second answer the question: What word tells you? This is the conjunction. If it is a simple sentence write "no conjunction".

You like reading, whenever you have free time.

Is this simple, compound, or complex?

What word tells you?

He is shorter than his sister.

Is this simple, compound, or complex?

What word tells you?

I like ice cream.

Is this simple, compound, or complex?

What word tells you?

She plays basketball, but she likes to skateboard.

Is this simple, compound, or complex?

What word tells you?

LIVEWORKSHEETS

When it is warm and sunny, they ask for hamburgers.

Is this simple, compound, or complex?

What word tells you?

They were bored this afternoon, so they went to the park.

Is this simple, compound, or complex?

What word tells you?

It is getting warmer outside; we can put our winter clothes away.

Is this simple, compound, or complex?

What word tells you?

Water is better for you because juice has a lot of sugar

Is this simple, compound, or complex?

What word tells you?

LIVEWORKSHEETS

I have been studying English since I was seven.

Is this simple, compound, or complex?

What word tells you?

LIVEWORKSHEETS