

Let's complete the sentences with the correct sentences given below

I find it very good for organizing

My speaking is really good.

I hate making mistakes.

Writing is really difficult.

USES OF THE -ING FORM

We use the -ing form...

1 as the subject of a sentence:

(a)

2 after a preposition. When a verb follows a preposition, it is always in the -ing form:

(b)

NOTE: in some expressions/phrasal verbs, to is used as a preposition (e.g., get used to, look forward to):

I'm looking forward to using it again.

3 after certain verbs, e.g., avoid, consider, enjoy, hate, imagine, like, love, practice:

(c)

4 after an article or my, your, his, etc:

(d)

5 after "no" on warning notices:

No swearing!

See page 36 for grammar reference and more practice.

ICPNA

