

Name: _____ Score: _____

1. The researcher records the length of a mango sprout for five days.
 - A. Interview
 - B. Observation
 - C. Questionnaire
 - D. Registration
2. This method gathers data from legal documents imposed by laws.
 - A. Interview
 - B. Observation
 - C. Questionnaire
 - D. Registration
3. It refers to a set of people, animals, objects, measurement and events involved in a statistical study wherein data are collected.
 - A. Population
 - B. Questionnaire
 - C. Registration
 - D. Sample
4. Which of the following are the methods in collecting data.
 - A. Observation, Interview, Questionnaire and Registration
 - B. Observation, Interview, Questionnaire and Rating Scale
 - C. Observation, Interview, Structured Questionnaire and Rating Scale
 - D. Observation, Interview, Unstructured Questionnaire and Rating Scale
5. The census representative visits every household and asks the number of members in each family.
 - A. Interview
 - B. Observation
 - C. Questionnaire
 - D. Registration
6. What are the two appropriate methods to be used in conducting a survey?
 - A. Interview and Questionnaire
 - B. Observation and Questionnaire
 - C. Observation and Registration
 - D. Registration and Questionnaire
7. The sports team visits the school and asks the students about their favorite sports.
 - A. Interview
 - B. Observation
 - C. Registration
 - D. Questionnaire

8. Which of the following statements can be used by registration method?
- A. Heights of the 20 participants
 - B. Favorite subject of the high school students
 - C. The total number of licensed doctors in the Philippines
 - D. Effects of computers in the academic performance of the students
9. Which method is appropriate in finding the total enrolment of students per grade level for three consecutive years?
- A. Interview
 - B. Observation
 - C. Questionnaire
 - D. Registration
10. Which of the following methods can get easily a data?
- A. Interview
 - B. Observation
 - C. Questionnaire
 - D. Registration