1) Complete with past simple or past continuous.

Fill the gap: The old man _____ (sleep), when he suddenly _____ (wake up).

2) Complete with past simple or past continuous.

Fill the gap: The old lady _____ (build) a castle when someone _____ (take) a piece of wood.

3) Complete with simple past or past continuous.

Fill the gap: Their favourite TV show _____ (start) while they _____ (sit) on the sofa.

4) Complete with past simple or past continuous.

Fill the gap: The nurse _____ (switch) off the TV.

5) Complete with past simple or past coninuous.

Fill the gap: The nurse _____ (play) Candy Crush, when a red light _____ (begin) to flash on the computer.

6) Complete with past simple or simple past.

Fill the gap: A man _____ (sweep) the floor while they _____ (hide)in a room.

7) Complete with past simple or past continuous.

Fill the gap: They _____ (enter)the room and the man _____ (not see) them.

8) Complete with past simple or past continuous.

Fill the gap: The old lady _____ (read) the map when she _____ (have) an idea.

9) Complete with past simple or past continuous.

Fill the gap: While the man _____ (sweep) the floor, they _____ (make) plans.

10) Complete with past simple or past continuous.

Fill the gap: The old man _____ (hang) above the nurse when she _____ (take) a photo.

11) Complete with past simple or past continuous.

Fill the gap: The nurse _____ (discover) the man above her and _____ (scream).

12) Complete with past simple or past continuous.

Fill the gap: They _____ (worry) when suddenly the man _____ (open) the door of the room.

13) Complete with past simple or past continuous.

Fill the gap: The old lady _____ (catch) the TV remote.

14) Complete with past simple or past continuous.

Fill the gap: They _____ (be) happy and proud to have the remote.

15) Complete with past simple or past continuous.

Fill the gap: They _____ (be) ready to watch their programme, but the remote _____ (not work) ...