

The problem we all live with. Norman Rockwell in (find the date).....

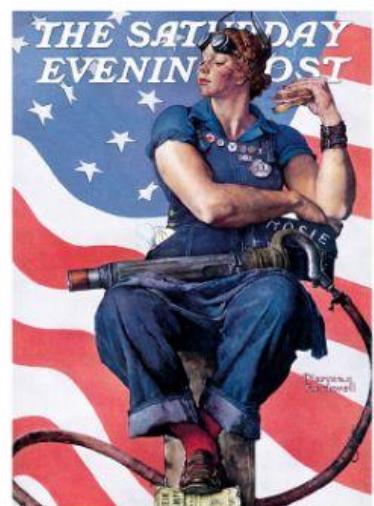

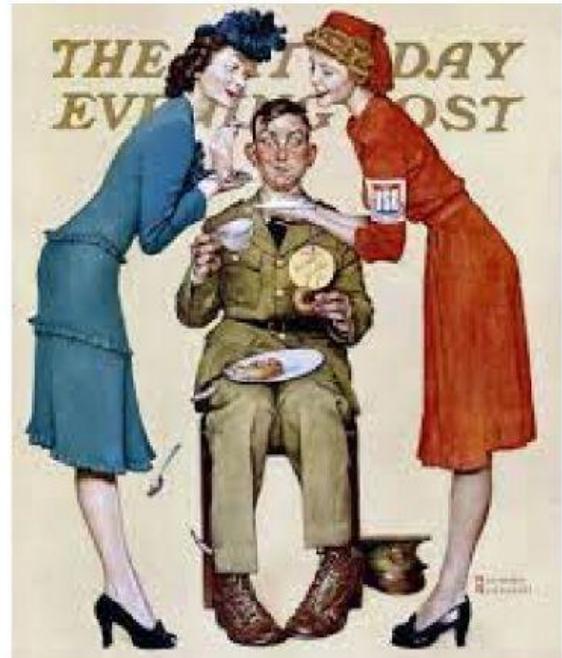

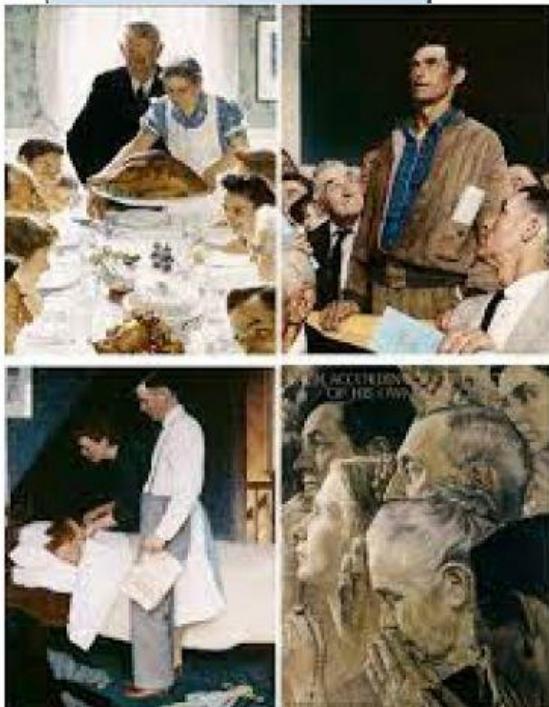

Present the document. Use the passive voice or the past simple.

This document is a painting. It (create) by Norman Rockwell in Norman Rockwell (February 3rd, 1894 – November 8th, 1978) (be) an American painter and illustrator. His works (have) a broad popular appeal in the United States for their reflection of American culture. Rockwell is most famous for the cover illustrations of everyday life he (create) for The Saturday Evening Post magazine over nearly five decades. Among the best-known of Rockwell's works are the Willie Gillis series, Rosie the Riveter, The Problem We All Live With, Saying Grace, and the Four Freedoms series.

The painting represents Ruby Bridges who (be) one of the first African American girls to go to an integrated school in (find the date, the name of the city and the State).....

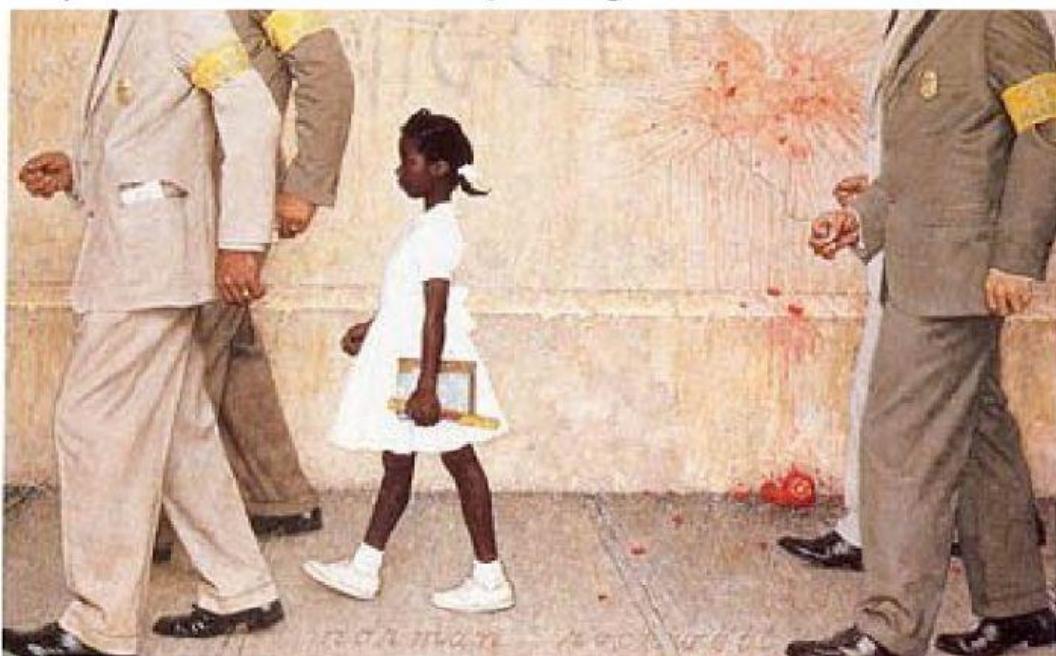

Connect the titles with the illustrations.

Willie Gillis series. Rosie the Riveter. Saying Grace. the Four Freedoms series.

Describe the painting.

1) Place the words on the painting.

in the background. in the foreground. on the left. on the right.

between.

Describe methodically what you see using the vocabulary of location. Use “there is”, “there are” and the present continuous or the present simple. Use also the hypothesis: must (100%), may (70%), might (30%), can’t (0%) or must be/ may be/ might be/ can’t be

In the foreground, a little girl. She (wear) a white dress, white shoes with white socks and white ribbons in her hair. She (hold) a copybook and a ruler. She (100%) going to school. She (100%) a kindergartener.

On the left and on the right, 4 men. They (walk) in front and behind her. They (be) tall and we cannot see their heads. They (wear) beige and brown suits. They (have) black shoes and yellow armbands. This (70%) part of a uniform. They (100%) protect the little girl. They (30%) bodyguards. They (0%) let her get hurt. She (100%) very important.

In the background, a wall. a racial slur written on it as well as a red stain. It (be not) blood, but a tomato because a tomato on the floor. Someone (100%) have thrown a tomato in order to (hit) the little girl.

This (70%) have taken place in the South of the United States because we (know) the Southern States (be past tense) segregated. The little girl (30%) going to a desegregated school. The white parents (70%) not want the girl to go to school with their children. The colour white on the girl (100%) represent innocence and peace whilst the red stain (30%) represent the violence of racism and bigotry.

watch the video

Check the date of the video and give your opinion about Ruby's life.

If you were Ruby's parents, what would you do?

If you were one of the federal agents, what would you do?

How would you describe the attitude of Ruby's teacher?

Why do you think that Rockwell decided to call this painting "The problem we all live with"?