Computing (Career Paths)

Word Test (Unit 1 – Types of computers, Unit 2 – Monitors)

0	E	PC	A a computer for use in a single location such as at home or at an office
1		resolution	B a vacuum tube used in older computer monitor
2		screen	C the difference in level between black and white on a computer screen
3		computer	D the sharpness of definition of a display, measured in pixels
4		monitor	E personal computer
5		workstation	F a surface part of a monitor that displays a computer` output
6		aspect ratio	G an electronic device that is used to display computer signals
7		CRT (cathode ray tube)	H an image on a monitor screen
8		desktop computer	I device that person can carry or move it
9		contrast	J it means that computer display has a higher resolution than a standard display
10		notebook	K time it takes (in milliseconds) for a pixel to go from white (active) to black (inactive) and back again
11		laptop	L the ratio of computer display`s long side to its short side
12		HD (high definition)	M a mobile computer for use in many places
13		personal computer	N a portable computer with a flat touch screen. It is smaller than a laptop but larger than a cellphone
14		display	O a powerful computer for processing difficult tasks
15		portable	P a computer for individual use
16		LCD (liquid crystal display)	Q a measure or description of how fast a computer can complete instructions
17		power	R a small computer that can be carried and used in many locations
18		tablet	S a display that uses liquid crystals to show outputs on a computer screen
19		response time	T a central computer that provides services or stores data for many other computers
20		server	U an electronic instrument for storing and operating on data

LIVEWORKSHEETS