T.P. Crimes and Consequences – Vocabulary

1- Complete the sentences as in the example. The first letter is given:

1 Two people robbed a bank yesterday and stole $10,000.

2 The criminals are planning to s_____ money and jewels from the bank.

3 The police are going to a_____ the suspects and take them to the police station.

4 There are high walls, so it is impossible for anyone to e_____ from this place.

5 They were acting very strangely, so the store detective became s_____. He thought they might be planning to steal something.

6 They definitely committed the crimes. They are g_____, not innocent.

7 He was the v_____ of a crime. Someone took his mobile phone.

8 They have broken the law. They will be p_____ for stealing.

2- Choose the correct option:

1 A burglar/shoplifter steals things from a shop.

2 Vandalism/Robbery is the crime of deliberately damaging property.

3 People who steal things are murderers/thieves.

4 The crime of killing someone is smuggling/ murder.

5 Two burglars/robbers stole money from the bank.

6 The crime of illegally taking things or people to a different country is smuggling/robbery.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

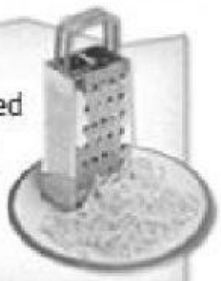

3- Read the texts and complete them with the words from the box. There are 2 extra words:

murder	murderer	smugglers	smuggling
theft	thieves	vandalism	~~vandals~~

Police have arrested five 1 vandals who destroyed a model railway. The 2 _____ to the model railway will cost thousands to repair and some items are irreplaceable. The five people will also be charged with 3 _____ since they also stole IT equipment.

Recently 4 _____ stole $40,000 worth of insects and reptiles. It is thought they might intend to sell them to 5 _____ who will secretly take them to other countries to sell.

When a man found his cousin stealing his cheese grater, he called the police. He stopped his cousin from leaving by pointing a gun at him. Fortunately, he didn't shoot or police could have arrested him for attempted 6 _____ !

LIVEWORKSHEETS