ANIMALS

1. Students from countries as diverse as Colombia use Cambridge textbooks.

2. A reserve an area of land kept in its natural state, especially for wild animals to live in and be protected.

3. Poaching poses a huge threat to the survival of this rare animal.

4. The population got out of control because there were no natural predators to keep it in check.

5. The wood turtle is omnivorous and is capable of eating on land or in water.

6. During this time, none of the young plants were destroyed by herbivores.

7. Energy conservation reduces your fuel bills and helps the environment.

8. Even the smallest baby can identify its mother by her voice.

9. Mountain gorillas are an endangered species.

10. With so many areas of woodland being cut down, a lot of wildlife is losing its natural habitat.

11. White blood cells help defend the body against infection.

12. The animal's thick fur provides very good insulation against the arctic cold.

13. A fish bone got stuck in my throat.

14. Animals bred in captivity would probably not survive if they were released into the wild.

15. There is concern that the giant panda will soon become extinct.

16. A SANCTURY - a place where birds or animals can live and be protected, especially from being hunted or dangerous conditions.

LIVEWORKSHEETS