

FUTURE PERFECT

1) The words are all mixed up. Organize them so the sentence structure is correct (positive, negative and interrogative).

1. arrive - cake - I - you - a - have - will - before - baked
2. will - lesson - the - finished - you - have
3. eaten - cake - not - will - we - have
4. have - not - will - slept - cat - your
5. she - have - will - learnt - before - choreography - noon - the?
6. Disney - released - another - will - have - of - the - the - end - year - by - movie?

2) Read carefully each statement and select which one is true.

1. The negative form for future perfect is:

- a) Subject + will + not + have + past participle
- b) Subject + will + not + have + past simple

2. We use the future perfect tense to talk about:

- a) things that haven't happened yet.
- b) something that will be completed before a specific time in the future.

3) Fill in the blanks using the correct verb form given in the brackets.

1. I _____ my package by now. (receive)
2. By this time, I _____ my 23rd book. (buy)
3. My classmate _____ his homework before class. (not/finish)
4. In 50 years' time, _____ robots _____ the world? (take over)
5. BTS _____ the album by May. (not/drop)
6. _____ she _____ the country already? (leave)