

Worksheet for eleventh grade – Cause and Effect Relation

Read it slowly and write the translation!

As a result of eating spicy food

Rania is a lover of spicy food. Because her parents also like spicy food, she said. She eats spicy food every day, such as macaroni, spicy savory wet chips / seblak, and spicy noodles, and she always chooses spicy food. She has often experienced stomach pain, but she still eats spicy food because she is very stubborn. Rania also often goes in and out of the house because of a stomach disease she suffers from. One day, when Rania was at school, her stomach disease recurred until she fainted, making her teachers and friends panic. So she had to be rushed to the hospital. Doctors have repeatedly told Rania that eating spicy food has a big impact on stomach ailments that are very dangerous. It was then that she slowly avoided spicy food.
