CAN

The red part is wrong.Fix the mistake and write the correct sentence again:

example: I'm sorry, Lisa. I don't can coming to school tomorrow.

I'm sorry, Lisa. I can't come to school tomorrow.

1. Carlos is a mechanic. He can cars and trucks.

   Carlos is a mechanic. He _____ cars and trucks.

2. Damary is a homemaker. She cleans every day. She can cleans well.

Damary is a homemaker. She cleans every day. She _____ well.

3. Sofya is a chef. She can cook Ethiopian food. She no can cook Spanish food.

   Sofya is a chef. She can cook Ethiopian food. She _____ Spanish food.

4. Paul and Eric are police officers. They are can give tickets to bad drivers.

   Paul and Eric are police officers. They _____ tickets to bad drivers.

5. Lisa is a teacher. She can teaching English well.

    Lisa is a teacher. She _____ English well.

6. I am sorry, Lisa. I don't can come to class tomorrow.

    I am sorry, Lisa. I _____ to class tomorrow.

7. Zufan is a home care assistant. She can takes care of sick people at home.

    Zufan is a home care assistant. She _____ care of sick people at home.

8. Jose is a janitor. He speaks Spanish. He no can speaks English well.

    Jose is a janitor. He speaks Spanish. He _____ English well.

9. What are your skills? You can use a computer?*

    What are your skills? _____ a computer?

10. What are your skills? Do you can work in a team?

    What are your skills? _____ in a team?