

TOEFL PRACTICE 2

(Subjects and Verbs)

Choose the option A, B, C, or D that BEST completes each of the following sentences.

1. Industrial Management, in business, _____ term used to describe the techniques and expertise of efficient organization, planning, direction, and control of the operations of a business.
A. refers to
B. referring to
C. which refers to
D. it refers to
2. In the theory of industrial management, _____ two principal aspects.
A. organization which has
B. organization having
C. has
D. organization has
3. Planning in industrial management _____ three principal aspects.
A. having
B. it has
C. has
D. which has
4. Industrial management experts who succeeded Taylor _____ his techniques to a wider range of business problems.
A. who has applied
B. who have applied
C. have applied
D. has applied
5. Direction _____ primarily with supervision and guidance by the executive in authority
A. which is concerned
B. concerned
C. is concerned
D. which it is concerned
6. A notable impetus to its evolution was provided by the American engineer Frederick Taylor, _____ for analyzing the operations involved in production and for setting standards for a day's work.
A. developed techniques
B. who developed techniques
C. who developing techniques
D. who have developed techniques
7. The techniques _____ Taylor were adapted by industrialists to other phases of business, including the employment of qualified workers
A. originally devised by
B. were originally devised by
C. which was originally devised
D. which devised by
8. People _____ in the countryside have moved to cities to find work.
A. once lived
B. who once they lived
C. who once lived
D. once whom lived
9. In my family, _____.
A. has five members
B. have five members
C. there are five members
D. having five members
10. The dogs _____ are good.
A. have white hair
B. which they have white hair
C. with white hair
D. with which white hair