Today my cartoons are printed in newspapers from coast to coast. Twenty years ago, when I was in fifth grade, they ran in just one- my school paper, the Spy. As I sit by my fireplace, memories of the awards ceremony that year make me feel even cozier than the fire does. Before I get drowsier, I will relate that earlier event. I had abilities in drawing. My duties for the paper were to write and illustrate a cartoon about the iciest bigfoot creature I could create- the greediest monster ever drawn. I wanted it to make readers feel horrified and terrified. My wish was not denied. I received the award for scariest cartoon that year. It was the first of several trophies that I have earned and the most satisfying of my victories. Its reflection casts the loveliest glow into my studio.
