

GO + TO/FOR/ON/-ING

55.1 Write to/on/for where necessary.

- I'm going to China next week.
- Richard often goes — sailing. (no preposition)
- Sue went to Mexico last year.
- Would you like to go to the cinema this evening?
- Jack goes to jogging every morning.
- I'm going out for a walk. Do you want to come?
- I'm tired because I went to bed very late last night.
- Martin is going on holiday to Italy next week.
- The weather was warm and the river was clean, so we went for a swim.
- The taxi drivers went on strike when I was in New York.
- I need some stamps, so I'm going to the post office.
- It's late. I have to go home now.
- Would you like to go on a tour of the city?
- Shall we go out for dinner this evening?
- My parents are going on a cruise this summer.

55.2 Use the pictures to complete the sentences. Use go/goes/giving/went + -ing.

- Richard has a boat. He often goes sailing.
- Last Saturday Diane went sailing.
- Gary swims every day.
- Nicole is going on holiday next month. She is going.
- Peter is going out later. He has to walk after work yesterday.
- Sarah jogged yesterday.

55.3 Complete the sentences. Use the words in the box. Use to/on/for if necessary.

a swim	holiday	Portugal	shopping	sleep
a walk	home	riding	skiing	university

- The water looks nice. Let's go for a swim.
- After leaving school, Tina went to university where she studied psychology.
- I'm going home now. I have to buy a few things.
- I was very tired last night. I sat down in an armchair and went to sleep.
- I wasn't enjoying the party, so I went home early.
- We live near the mountains. In winter we go skiing most weekends.
- Richard has got a horse. He goes riding a lot.
- The weather is nice. Shall we go for a walk along the river?
- A: Are you going on holiday soon?
B: Yes, next month. We're going to Portugal. We've never been there before.