

Future Perfect

1) Select the correct sentence structure in its affirmative form.

- A. My tea will gotten cold.
- B. My tea will have gotten cold.
- C. My tea have will gotten cold

- A. My neighbor will have cleaned the street.
- B. My neighbor have will cleaned the street.
- C. My neighbor will cleaned the street.

- A. You have will learnt the choreography.
- B. You have learnt the choreography.
- C. You will have learnt the choreography.

2) Select the correct sentence structure in its negative form.

- A. My tea will not have gotten cold.
- B. My tea will have not gotten cold
- C. My tea have will not gotten cold.

- A. My neighbor not will have cleaned the street.
- B. My neighbor will not have cleaned the street.
- C. My neighbor have will not cleaned the street.

- A. You will not have learnt the choreography.
- B. You will have not learnt the choreography.
- C. You not will have learnt the choreography.

3) Select the correct sentence structure in its interrogative form.

- A. Will my tea have gotten cold?
- B. My tea will have gotten cold?
- C. Will my tea gotten have cold?

- A. Will have my neighbor cleaned the street?
- B. Will my neighbor have cleaned the street?
- C. Will my neighbor cleaned the street?

- A. Will have you learn the choreography?
- B. Will you learnt have the choreography?
- C. Will you have learnt the choreography?