Modal Exercises:

Complete the sentences with can, could, might, may, should, must, have to. Sometimes you need the negative form.

1. The phone is ringing, it _____ be Alex.
2. You look sick, you _____ see a doctor.
3. They _____ drink coffee if they prefer tea.
4. Somebody was calling last night, but I _____ answer, I was asleep.
5. She _____ come to the meeting, she is out of the country now.
6. Be careful. You _____ use your cell phone when you are driving.
7. You _____ spend the day watching TV. Go and do something more productive.
8. A: Do you know who's that girl sitting next to Sam? B: I have no idea but it _____ be his girlfriend.
9. _____ I use your laptop for an hour?
10. Karla can sing really well but she _____ play any musical instrument.
11. My father _____ fly a plane when he was younger.
12. We _____ buy the ticket now if we want to watch the soccer match.
13. If you are planning to travel you _____ have a passport.
14. Buy a lottery ticket. You _____ be lucky.
15. Paula _____ go to the meeting last week. She was ill.
16. _____ I speak to Mr. Brown, please?
17. It's a good film. You _____ go and see it.
18. _____ I borrow your book?
19. A: Do you know that girl over there? B: She_____ be a new student.
20. Sorry, I _____ come to your party yesterday.

LIVEWORKSHEETS