V. Read the passage, then write True or False for each of the statements (1.0pt)

All around the world, people drink tea. But tea does not mean the same thing to everyone. In different countries people have different ideas about drinking tea.

In China, for example, tea is always served when people gather together. The Chinese drink it at any time of a day, at home or in tea houses. They like plain tea with nothing else in it.

Tea is also important in Japan. The Japanese have a special way of serving tea, which is called a tea ceremony. There is even a special room for it in Japanese homes.

In the United States, people drink tea for mostly breakfast or after meals. American usually use tea bags to make their tea. Making tea with tea bag is faster and easier than the teapots. In summer, many American drink cold tea, "iced – tea". They sometimes drink iced – tea from cans.

Tea is mainly produced in China, India, and Srilanka, but it is popular all around the world.
