1. Listen and complete the phrases you hear.

This's your life, _____. If you don't wanna answer the questions and you wanna blame everybody else, you're done before you start.

We _____ get together. If you want to change the world, _____ group together, _____ be collaborative. That's what religions do.

I don't have any other time 'cause _____ shoot that day and then show it that night. _____, it's that pressure. It's that thing, you know, _____ focus. _____ get it done which ties me in to the final thing: you know, ultimately what I found in life, _____ to some people recently, is that when you put yourself in that situation where you have that concrete deadline…Some people tell you to set goals, set deadlines. But if there really isn't something concrete on that deadline, _____. You'll change the deadline.

Well, you cannot leave. _____ if you run from your problems, you're just _____ plant and grow problems everywhere you go. So, you _____ try and figure out how to turn these problems into solutions.

Now, it's impossible to convert change aversion when you make changes to products that so many people use. Even though we tried to do all the right things, we still received our customary flood of video protests and angry emails and even a package that _____ scanned by security. But _____ people care intensively about this stuff, and it's because these products, this work, really, really _____ to them. Now, we know that _____ about paying attention to the details, _____ cognizant about how we use data in our design process, and _____ change very, very carefully. Now, these things are really _____.

So after the weird, disorienting success that I went through with "Eat, Pray, Love," I realized that all I _____ was exactly the same thing that I used to _____ do all the time when I was an equally disoriented failure. I _____ get my ass back to work, and that's what I did.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

For example, _____ multiple jobs while you were in college that did not at all align with your major? That shows an employer that you have time management skills and a strong work ethic.

- Sofiane, you're an international exchange student from Tunisia.
- Yes.
- What kind of obstacles _____?
- Obviously, there was a personal and a technical challenge. The main challenge was to overcome the language barrier. You have a team made of mainly U.S. citizens. As an international student, _____ how to communicate with them.

- So John, you said you had a 100 hundreds of beers here.
- Uh huh.
- Which one is your favorite?
- Well, one right now with the warmer weather hitting, a personal favorite of mine and a lot of customers love is Weihenstephaner Hefeweissbier. A lot of people have had Hefeweizen. This is my personal favorite.
- _____ practice saying that several times?
- Yeah, I love hearing customers try to pronounce it, too. It's a little bit of a challenge to say. It's a mouthful. But it's just a delicious refreshing summer beer. We found even though we're not a German place, we're European, German beers sell really well here.

2. Write 3 forms of irregular verbs.

1. sell - _____ - _____.
2. mean - _____ - _____.
3. take - _____ - _____.
4. fall - _____ - _____.
5. grow - _____ - _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS