

VOCABULARY

Work with your partner. Complete the sentences with words or phrases from the box. WRITE the correct letter in the space. Use a dictionary if necessary.

- A) a cock-and-bull story      B) a long story an old wives' tale      C) a sob story D) tattle-tale      E) the story of my life      F) to cut a long story short

- a They say that eating carrots helps you see in the dark, but personally I think it's just _____.
b We lost our baggage at the airport and had to fill in various forms and keep calling the airline. But anyway, _____, we got it back in the end.
c "Mommy, Ella hit the cat." "Don't be a _____ Mia" d I'm afraid you can't believe everything Karen says. She's always got _____ about how badly people have treated her. e When he arrived late he told me _____ about being trapped in an elevator and then being rescued by a news reporter and being interviewed on TV.
f I didn't get the job – they told me I didn't have enough experience. But that's _____ g "So how did you persuade your father to lend you the car?" "Well, it's _____"

Work with your partner. discuss which expressions (a–g) in exercise 1 relate to ...

- 1 a myth or superstition. _____      5 a story that you don't want to tell in detail. _____
2 a silly story that is hard to believe. _____      6 a detailed or complicated story. _____
3 a person who tells a story to get someone else into trouble. _____      7 something unfortunate that often happens to someone. _____
4 a sad story designed to elicit sympathy. _____

Read the situations and complete the sentences with words and phrases from the box.

- a) con      b) fall for      c) fishy      d) get taken for a ride      e) naive
f) plausible      g) skeptical      h) unfaithful

- a I let the used-car salesman _____ me into believing that the sound that the engine makes was nothing to worry about. I shouldn't have been so gullible.
b You can't take Laura in – she's too streetwise to _____ any cock-and-bull story.
c He made out he was a police officer and just needed to check my passport. How was I to know he was a con man? His story seemed completely _____ to me

b) con    b) fall for    c) fishy    d) get taken for a ride    e) naive
f) plausible    g) skeptical    h) unfaithful

d You have to be really on the ball and astute if you don't want to _____. There are some really unscrupulous people out there.

e Did you really swallow that sob story about his daughter? I can't believe you were so _____.

f He led me to believe he wanted to marry me. Little did I realize he already had a wife and children back home. It's made me more _____ about men, I'm afraid.

g "I thought that investment deal sounded _____." "Yes, I should have realized. The trouble with me is, I'm too trusting – I take everyone at their word."

h Unbeknown to Tim, his girlfriend was cheating on him. He can't seem to find a woman who isn't _____ to him.

Choose the correct alternatives.

a Are you a(n) gullible / plausible / unfaithful person or are you more skeptical?

b Have you ever been tricked / made out / swallowed into handing over money to a stranger?

c Can you think of a trusting / plausible / naïve excuse for forgetting an appointment?

d Have you ever made out / taken in / conned you were sick when you didn't want to go somewhere?

e Would you ever fall for / make out / cheat on a boyfriend or girlfriend behind their back?