

1 Replace the words in italics with the correct form of the words or phrases below. Add the missing word in each phrase when necessary. There are two extra phrases in each box be wary ____ envy ____ feel sorry ____ have a lot in common ____ look ____ to not see eye ____ eye ____ respect

- I really admire my uncle. He's a successful businessman, and an example I want to follow in life.
I _____ my uncle
- I have a lot of sympathy for Claire. Her grandmother died recently, and she's feeling upset.
I _____ Claire.
- My sister and I don't agree on anything. We have such different points of view and are always arguing.
We _____ on anything.
- I don't really trust Matthew. I never know what he's going to say next, and I worry whether he's lying or not.
I _____ Matthew.
- I share the same interests as John. We both like science fiction films and board games.
I _____ John.

adore ____ be close ____ be ____ the same wavelength as ____ envy ____ have nothing ____ common with ____ look ____ on trust

- Jill has little respect for her cousins. She thinks they are not as clever or sensible as she is.
Jill _____ her cousins.
- Amy has the same feelings and interests as her sister. They help each other when they have problems.
Amy _____ her sister.
- Tracey knows exactly what her best friend Clara is thinking.
Tracey _____ Clara.
- We both know that we can depend on Mark. He is always honest, keeps secrets and will always be there to help.
We both _____ Mark.
- I don't share any interests with Harry. He loves sport and I like music and fashion.
I _____ Harry.

2 Choose the correct verbs to complete the sentences.

- Everybody ____ me on how well I had organised the event. I was very pleased to hear such praise.
a nagged b lectured c complimented
- In class, Jill got the teacher's name wrong, and everybody laughed. Her classmates have been ____ Jill about it ever since, but she doesn't think it's funny.
a teasing b praising c flattering
- I felt really ____ when the sports coach said I was too lazy to be in the team. I have worked hard at my fitness and I thought he was just being rude.
a offended b teased c flattered
- On the way home, some boys ____ me in the street. They shouted rude things, and I felt very upset.
a insulted b praised c warned
- The head of English ____ our class for working hard, and doing well in the exams.
a flattered b nagged c praised
- In school assembly yesterday, the head teacher ____ the whole school about using their mobile phones for personal reasons in class. It was so boring. She just talked on and on.
a offended b teased c lectured
- On the school trip to the coast, the teacher ____ us about getting too close to the sea wall because it was dangerous.
a praised b insulted c warned
- My mum has been ____ me to get my hair cut for days. But I don't want to get it cut! I like it long.
a flattering b nagging c insulting
- I felt ____ when Dan told me how good he thought I was at science. But I didn't really believe him – I knew he just wanted to copy my homework!
a nagged b lectured c flattered
- My sister was ____ for not cleaning her room. I'm not surprised. She never tidies anything, and Mum and Dad get so annoyed.
a told off b insulted c complimented