Past tense writing checklist about a celebration

- Use past tense and some conjunctions (and, but, because)
- Use at least one adjective, one comparative and one superlative

1. Think about a recent celebration and then answer these questions in COMPLETE sentences.

What did you or you and your family celebrate? _____

_____

When did you celebrate it? _____

Where did you go for the celebration or did you stay at home? _____

_____

Who did you celebrate with? _____

How long did you celebrate for? _____

How did you prepare for the celebration? _____

_____

What was the first thing you did on the day of the celebration? _____

_____

Why did you do that? _____

How did you feel when did it? _____

What was the second thing you did? _____

Why did you do that? _____

How did you feel when did it? _____

What was the third thing you did? _____

Why did you do that? _____

How did you feel when did it? _____

_____

How would you describe your celebration overall? _____

_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS

2. Now copy the answer sentences in the box below so they make one or two paragraphs.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3. Now write your final copy of the paragraphs.Try and join some of sentences together to make a more interesting story. Remember to use the past tense verbs, some conjunctions, one or more adjectives, comparatives and superlatives to make your story better quality.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

LIVEWORKSHEETS