Mary grew 6 inches in her first year in high school. Now she wants to join the basketball team. Mary knows she must build her skills over the summer. Every day she practices her shooting and dribbling (ведение мяча). Some days she gets her little brother to help. She practices passing the ball to him. Soon Mary plans to visit the playground. There she can practice with players who are on the team. She can learn how she is doing. She can also find out what else she needs to learn.
