

It's completely dark! Nick is sitting in front of his cake. Everyone is sitting or standing around Nick. Nick's mom lights the candles on the cake again. She finds some candles in the kitchen and lights them, too.

The wind is blowing hard outside. Nick is nervous. What about the party? "It's ok," his mom says. "We can still have your birthday party in the dark." Everyone eats their cake in the candlelight.

Nick's grandpa finds a flashlight and lights more candles. Everyone goes into the living room. The lightning is flashing outside and the wind is blowing. Everyone is talking and laughing.

Nick opens his presents. Opening presents in the dark is fun! He gets a soccer ball and a trumpet. His friend Stephan gives him a toy jet! Then Nick's mom says, "I have a surprise for you." Nick is very curious.
