Firewall, Passwords, NAC, Malicious, Authorization, VPN, Phishing

Activity 2.2.2

Fill in the blanks with appropriate terms from the network security mechanism.

1. For added security, ... should have the combination of letters, symbols, and numbers.

2. ..... is a software that is designed to block unauthorised access to computers and networks.

3. The software that restricts the number and types of users who have access to a network is called as .....

4. The two common types of application security are authentication and .....

5. Malware is also called as ..... software.

6. ..... is network created to secure the connection between remote computers and other computes.

7. An email security software can protect the users from email attacks like .....

Copyright © Ministry of Education - United A

LIVEWORKSHEETS