

Debra&John LWS 8 Part 1. If you had to leave John, what would be the plan?

1.Shadow the following snippets, trying to imitate the pronunciation and intonation as close as possible.

A. John Dzialo can't be sure how John Meehan found him. And he was apprehensive about taking him on as a client.

_____

B. His paralegal had done some research on Meehan and was so spooked that she told her boss that she wanted no part of the case. _____

C. Meehan had done a prison time for stalking and terrorizing a Laguna Beach woman and now, on April 8 2015, Meehan was sitting in Dzialo's Santa Ana law office. Meehan wanted Dzialo to sue the Laguna Beach woman claiming she had cheated him of a quarter million dollars. _____

D. Meehan had other ideas for lawsuits too: there was yet another woman who had supposedly cheated him; he also accused police who had arrested him of stealing his cash. _____

E. The blizzard of lawsuits was part of John Meehan's plan to win back the trust of his wife Debra, who was sitting beside him. He wanted Dzialo to prove he'd been the victim in case after case, not at all the dangerous swindler portrayed in mountains of court papers. _____

F. Dzialo told me that he planned to turn down the case even though he would be getting a 25000-dollar retainer. But meeting Debra, listening to Debra gave him second thoughts. She seemed naïve and helplessly in her husband's grip. _____

G. She struck me right off the bat as a very genuine, very sweet, very vulnerable lady. And she was obviously in love with him. _____

H. Although I really only met him face-to-face once, and that was in about a two-hour interview, he was the scariest man I had ever met in my life. _____

I. I'm seventy years old, I practiced law for 42 years before I retired last year in September, John Meehan was scary. _____

J. We don't wanna believe the really bad things about people. We just don't. We wanna think that people are good. And when you meet somebody like this and you realize, I'm sitting here in the presence of evil incarnate, you know that people like him really do exist and one has just come into your orbit. _____
