

GRAMMAR USED TO

1 Complete the second sentence using used to. Write two words in each gap. Contractions count as two words.

- I went to the cinema every week when I was a student. Now I hardly ever go.
I used to go to the cinema a lot.
- William paints every day. He never did this before.
William _____ use to paint every day.
- I drank fizzy drinks all the time when I was younger. Now I never drink them.
I used _____ fizzy drinks all the time.
- These days she reads a lot. In the past she read very little.
She didn't _____ read much.
- I recognise that woman. Did she live near us?
Did _____ to live near us?
- When I was young, I played the guitar, violin, drums and flute. Now I don't play anything.
I used _____ lots of musical instruments.
- I remember your cousins. Did they visit you regularly years ago?
_____ cousins use to stay with you?
- My father always called me 'Princess' when I was a child. Now he calls me by my real name.
My father _____ call me 'Princess' when I was little.
- I hated classical music when I was a teenager. Now I love it.
I didn't _____ like classical music.
- When I was younger, I was a teacher. Now I'm a tour guide.
I used _____ a teacher.

GRAMMAR PURPOSE, CAUSE AND RESULT

2 Complete the sentences with so, to or because.

- Sarah was unhappy because I forgot her birthday.
- I ate the bread _____ I was hungry.
- The tickets were too expensive, _____ we didn't go to the concert.
- Yuko was ill, _____ she didn't come to class.
- Ben went to Liberia _____ make a documentary.
- She was unhealthy _____ she smoked and ate fatty foods.
- I bought a money belt _____ keep my passport and cash safe.
- It was really hot, _____ Pilar wore her sunhat.
- They are here _____ take an exam.
- I went to the shops _____ buy some milk.
- Sandra was cold and tired, _____ she went home.
- Jacob didn't buy anything _____ he didn't have any money.