Stuart's Future

Near Stuart's house, there is a dark cave which he likes to play in at weekends. On Saturday, something strange happened there. When he arrived at the cave, he saw an old woman sitting on a rock, singing. She had long silver hair and there was a heavy glass ball in her hands.

"Don't be afraid of me, Stuart. I'm here to help you see your future," she said. Stuart didn't know what to do, but the old woman put a gold star in his pocket and he felt happier. She told him to look at the moon at midnight and say three secret words. Then, she whispered the words in his ear and flew out of the cave.

At midnight, Stuart looked at the moon from his bedroom window and felt the gold star in his pocket. Slowly, he whispered the three secret words. Then, the room filled with fog. In the fog, there was a footballer on a field. The footballer was Stuart, who was winning the game! "Excellent!" he shouted.
