

GRAMMAR

MODAL AUXILIARY VERBS (II) OBLIGATION, PROHIBITION, ADVICE

A) CHOOSE THE CORRECT MODAL VERB (MUST, MUSTN'T, SHOULD, SHOULDN'T, HAVE TO, DON'T HAVE TO).

- 1 All the students in this school                      wear a uniform. It's obligatory.
- 2 Tom                      go to the dentist – That tooth doesn't look good.
- 3 We                      come to work tomorrow. It's a bank holiday.
- 4 I                      go to New York. I'd like to visit my sister.
- 5 Be quiet please. You                      speak in the library.
- 6 Teenagers                      drink alcohol.
- 7 She                      wear a uniform. It's optional.
- 8 Children                      smoke.
- 9 You                      hurry. You have plenty of time.
- 10 We don't have much diesel, so we                      stop at the next petrol station.

2 COMPLETE THE SENTENCES WITH MUSTN'T, OUGHTN'T TO OR NEEDN'T.

1. That football player is a liar. He                      dive all the time.
2. You                      wear a cap or a hood in class.
3. They                      drink if they don't want to. Nobody obliges them!
4. You                      hit, rob or kill other people.
5. Sam                      allow his children to talk to him like that. It's very rude of them.
6. I                      take the umbrella. It won't rain.
7. I think you                      talk to her unless she apologises.
8. We                      be late. Our train leaves at 10.15 a.m.
9. They                      do the washing up. They've got a dishwasher.
10. The doctor said that I                      eat any fast food.

3 CHOOSE THE BEST MODAL VERB.

1. The students                      forget their homework.
2. You                      show this email to anybody else. I trust you.
3. Concertgoers                      take to the concert any object that might hurt attendants.
4. You                      take the lift. My office is on the ground floor.
5. When we were at secondary school, we                      study hard in order to pass.
6. You                      be an expert to operate this machine. It's really basic.
7. She                      tell me that she's sorry.
8. I still can see perfectly well, so I                      wear glasses.
9. We                      go for a drink one day.
10. What are you doing? You                      be in here! Get out!