

Transition Words

Choose the transition word that best fits the blank.

- 1- Michael doesn't love Jenny                      he is going to marry her.
- 2- My dog is really fast                      he won a competition last year.
- 3- I would like to have a coffee                      I would like to have some cake.
- 4-                      you have to open the door and then you can put the chicken in,                      you have to wait for the chicken to cook.
- 5- He didn't come to the interview                      he doesn't want this job.
- 6- I love this dress because it is red                      it is very comfortable.
- 7- The team went to play                      the rain.
- 8- To take part in the team you need to be committed, you need to be resilient and                      you have to be honest.

