

Lesson-2-Worksheet

Choose the correct option

1) Features that make an organism unique are called _____.

1. offspring
2. special
3. traits
4. freckles

2) The passing on of traits from parents to young is _____.

1. characteristic
2. heredity
3. offspring
4. germination

3) A flower's red petals are an example of a(n) _____ trait.

1. inherited
2. parent
3. internal
4. external

4) A tomato seed will grow into a _____.

1. bean plant
2. tomato plant
3. sunflower plant
4. corn plant

5) When a seed grows into a plant it most likely will _____.

1. look nothing like its parent
2. look similar to its parent
3. look similar to a rose
4. look nothing like a rose

6) Fill in the blanks using the available answer choices.

Inherited traits come from _____.

1. one parent
2. both parents

7) What is one way that pine trees might be different from each other?

1. They don't look like their parents.
2. Some have a different life cycle.
3. They don't have the same number of pine needles.

8) Marisol wants to show that plants need sunlight in order to grow. She plants one plant in a terrarium with soil. Then she puts the terrarium in a sunny room. Marisol makes a second terrarium for the next part of her experiment. What should she do differently with the second terrarium?

1. She should use another kind of soil.
2. She should put it in a dark room.
3. She should place it under a bright light.