A day in the life of the tennis star Antonio Perez

I've got a small family. There's my mum, my stepdad, my sister and me. We all love tennis – my sister can play tennis and she's only four years old!

On school days I get up at half past five in the morning and get dressed in my tennis clothes. I have breakfast and then my mum and I go to the sports centre together. She works there. I play tennis for an hour before school.

After tennis, I have a shower and get dressed in my school uniform. I meet my friends at half past eight and we walk to school together. School starts at nine o'clock.

After school, I go tho the sports centre again. I have a tennis lesson at four o'clock in the afternoon with my mum. She's my tennis coach. Then we go home. My stepdad doesn't get home until six o'clock in the afternoon. We have dinner together at half past six and then I do my homework. From seven to eight o'clock in the evening. I watch TV or play computer games in my bedroom. I go to bed early because I'm tired – I get up very early in the morning.
