

8A VOCABULARY Crime and punishment

Alphabet quiz

A The police stopped me and a c c u s e d me of speeding.

B When we got home last night, we discovered that a ██████████ had broken into our house and stolen our laptops.

C The police still don't know who ██████████ the crime.

D The name for a person who sells illegal drugs: drug **██████████.

E There wasn't enough ██████████ to prove that he was guilty.

F The gang committed ████████ by making fake dollar bills.

G The judge found the accused not ████████ of the crime.

H I was furious when a ████████ used my identity on Twitter.

I I honestly didn't do anything wrong, officer. I'm **██████████!

J Twelve people make up the members of a **██████.

K The gang ██████████ the businessman and then demanded money for his return.

L When somebody is acquitted of a crime, the police ████ them go.

M A ████████ is somebody who attacks or threatens you on the street and tries to steal something from you.

O Another word for a crime is an **████████.

P Be careful of ████████████████ when you go into town! They can take your wallet without you noticing.

Q The police wanted to ██████████ the suspect about his alibi.

R There have been several ██████████ in this area. Remember to always lock your door!

S A ██████████ is somebody who watches and follows another person in a frightening way.

T A common crime on the Internet is identity **████████.

V Depending on the ██████████, the accused will either be sentenced or be released.

W Neither of the two ██████████ were particularly reliable. They both gave completely different descriptions of the mugger!