

BE GOING TO

AFFIRMATIVE AND NEGATIVE

Affirmative				Negative
I	'm	going to	stay in a hotel. sleep in a tent.	I	'm not	going to	go climbing. take a helmet.
You / We / They	're			You / We / They	aren't
She / He	's			She / He	isn't

We use going to when we talk about planned events in the future. We construct it with the subject + the appropriate form of the verb to be + going to + an infinitive.

1 Read and change to the affirmative or negative form.

- I'm going to sleep in a tent. ❌ I'm not going to sleep in a tent.
- You're not going to stay at home. ✔️
- They're going to take a compass. ❌
- He's going to climb a mountain. ❌
- We aren't going to tell ghost stories. ✔️
- She isn't going to buy a torch. ✔️
- You're going to go camping. ❌

2 Look, read and complete.

- Rosie 's going to _____ ride on a cable car.
- Rosie _____ visit an aqueduct.
- Rosie and Charlie _____ go hiking.
- Charlie _____ see a mosaic.
- Charlie and Rosie _____ eat in a restaurant.
- Rosie _____ go to a museum.
- Rosie and Charlie _____ go to a water park.
- Charlie _____ swim in a lake.

Rosie

ride on a cable car
swim in a lake
eat in a restaurant

Charlie

visit an aqueduct
see a mosaic
eat in a restaurant