

Name: _____

Independent and Dependent Clauses

DIRECTION: Read each group of words. If it is an independent write independent on the line. If it is a dependent clause, write dependent on the line.

clause,

1. Although I asked him _____
2. Her opinion is silly _____
3. Before our last class _____
4. Until I see it for myself _____
5. I got a good job _____
6. Because I have a cold _____
7. After I have my lunch _____
8. Antonio won the bet _____
9. The cake is done _____
10. Since we asked him _____
11. I realized you were right _____

Match the correct independent clause with the most appropriate dependent clause.

Column A

1. Lamar eats carrots
2. Cassidy likes to sew
3. Clint made good money
4. Ken is a bully
5. My mother is a nurse

Column B

- so he has no friends since she likes helping people because it is relaxing
so she bought a house when he wants to have a snack