A different day at home

My name is Paul. I've got a younger brother, Jim, and a baby sister, Mary. My dad is a doctor and my mum is a nurse. They both work in a hospital. They love working there and helping people. We live in a small town and our house is big with a beautiful garden in front of it. The roads are very quite here so my brother and I ride our bikes to school. After school we sometimes go to the square with our friends. Then we go home and do our homework. But today things are different. When we get back home we see our grandmother waiting for us. We are surprised and we know something is wrong. And it is. Mary isn't very well. She has got a terrible earache and a really bad stomach ache so my parents have to take her to hospital. We are very sad. We call Dad and he tells us that Marry is getting better.
