

finance vocabulary unit 8 Intelligent Business - vocabulary test

1. The company went bankrupt last year due to _____ [złe zarządzanie].
2. She promised to prepare a _____ [zestawienie bilansowe] by Friday.
3. Have you already filed your _____ [zeznanie podatkowe]
4. Our company has more _____ [wydatki] at the beginning of the year.
5. The auditor found some _____ [nieprawidłowości] in our reporting.
6. _____ [odsetki należne niezapadłe/odsetki przychodowe] is the amount of interest that has been earned, but which has not yet been received in cash.
7. Our _____ [zysk netto] is going to be much lower next year after the tax regulation changes.
8. Our _____ [koszty ogólne] such as electricity, heating costs etc have gone down because there are fewer people working in the office at the moment.
9. If it weren't for _____ [kreatywna księgowość,] we would have gone bankrupt a long time ago.
10. They still have a massive _____ [dług] after they decided to take out mortgage.
11. Many people claim the CEO is _____ [przecenia] the importance of the merger.
12. The current politics may lead to _____ [napędzienia] inflation.
13. The CFO was sacked for _____ [nagganne postępowanie] in terms of treating his subordinates.
14. The current sales _____ [przekraczają] our expectations.
15. Usually, when you _____ [kupujesz hurtowo], you can save some money