Last Tuesday, my friend William came to our house and we went swimming together. When we were in the water, we saw some silver fish. Katy said:' Look, I can swim faster than the fish!' William said: 'So can I!'

Then Katy said:' Let's see who can swim across the lake the fastest! Let's have a race!'' William likes to have competitions and so does Katy, but I don't because I am the youngest and so I never win. I was last again. I felt tired and unhappy.

William said: 'OK. Let's have one more competition. Let's see who can jump the highest out of the water. Richard you go first'

I jumped up, then Katy jumped, then William. I jumped the lowest and William jumped the highest. William shouted:'' I am the best at jumping! I am the best!'' But when he was shouting a beautiful gold fish jumped out of the water, much higher than William.

I laughed and said:'' No, William, that beautiful fish is the best!''
