

Will-future or going to future?

spontaneous decisions, hopes, predictions

e.g.: Don't worry, I will help you.

I think Tom will be OK in Wales.

plans and intentions

e.g.: Tom is going to move to Wales.

What are you going to do tomorrow?

You can also watch this short video: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=EyhIGGe-JG4>

Practice

Put in the right forms.

1. I hope I will pass the exam. (to pass)
2. I'm so hungry. I am going to make us something to eat. (to make)
3. They will visit the London Eye. They are standing in front of it.
4. Do you think we will have lunch at Mc Donalds? (to have)
5. Tom will probably arrive at eight o'clock. (to arrive)
6. Tom and Linda are going to play Badminton on Thursday. (play)
7. Look at the clouds. It will rain! (to rain)
8. I think Tom will like his birthday presents. (to like)
9. Tom will be eleven in January. (to be)
10. Dad says he is going to go on holiday in Wales. (to go)
11. Perhaps we will go swimming. (to go swimming)
12. I hope the Maths test will be easy. (to be)
13. Easter is going to be early this year. (to be)
14. He is going to take the tube today because it's quicker. (to take)
15. I hope she will like it. (to like)
16. Granddad is in the garden. He is going to plant a tree. (to plant)

