

1. Watch the first part of the video and complete the following summary.

On the video, we can see that there is a robot teacher and his owner is learning the colors in (1) _____. According to the video, robots are (2) _____ to change our lives. Nowadays, robots can clean; serve meals even operate on us and (3) _____ us. College students who are working on robots may hardly be aware of the extent to which (4) _____ will (5) _____ this world. In the video, it is showed a robot that is called (6) _____ and it is being tested with the help of a (7) _____ boy. According to the video, children are more (8) _____ in lessons when they are given by robots.

2. Watch the second part of the video. Then check F (False) or T (True) the following statements. Support all the false statement.

9. According to the video, robots cannot support teachers. ()
10. Robots have a technical system and they are programmed to have infinite patience. ()
11. Robots cannot be programmed to speak more than one language. ()
12. Immigrant children learn German and English because they have robots at their homes. ()
13. In Germany, there is an Aerospace center that is making advances in the field of robotics. ()
14. The German Aerospace center is selling a surgical robot in Europe. ()
15. According to the video, the surgical robot is operated by the surgical team. ()

3. Watch the third part of the video and complete the following summary.

According to the head of the Institute of (16) _____ and (17) _____, this method will soon be standard in Europe. He considers that a surgical robot is much more (18) _____ and this means that the operation results will be more (19) _____. He is concerned about the voice that robots might end up (20) _____ doctors and (21) _____ but he considers that it won't be the case. On the contrary, robots can be used to develop the (22) _____ tasks and specialists will have more time to (23) _____. He thinks that doctors being supported by robots will improve the (24) _____ of (25) _____ care.