

Listen to the job interview and answer the question:

1. What did the Mrs. Peter said first?

- a) Good morning, Angela. Nice to meet you. Please have a seat.
- b) Good morning, Angela. Please have a seat
- c) Good morning, Angela. Nice meeting you. Please have a seat.

2. Did she start taking an interview right away or started with a small talk?

She said, 'Peters: Did you have any problems finding our building this morning?'

Is it

- a. a small talk? or
- b. an interview questions?

3. So, Angela I was just reading over your resume, and you say here that you graduated from a 6- month training program in the day-care field.

Whose talking?

A the interviewer B the interviewee

4. What should be the answer to this question?

Good, good. . . so can you tell me why you are interested in working with children?

- a) I grew up in a big family - 5 of us - and as the oldest, I had to help with my brothers and sisters. I like the responsibility and I enjoy the challenges of looking after children.
- b) I graduated at the top of my class.
- c) I like working with children because I have a degree in education.

5. When should Angela give the receptionist her new address?

- a) Monday at 8:00am
- b) Next week
- c) On her way out of the interview

