PINOCCHIO

“I have a plan to get out,” said Pinocchio, and began tickling the whale’s stomach.

As soon as the whale opened its mouth and gave a big sneeze, Pinocchio and Geppeto shot out!

Pinocchio and Geppeto finally reached home safely. The fairy was so pleased with Pinocchio's bravery that she decided to make him into a real flesh and blood boy.

From that day, he was a very good boy who never missed school again, and the father and son lived happily ever after.
