HANSEL AND GRETEL

Suddenly, hidden in the trees, they saw a strange house made of candy, cookies, chocolate and everything delicious.

"This is a gingerbread house!" cried Gretel happily.

The children were so hungry that they started gobbling up the house at once.

Now this house actually belonged to an old witch who loved to eat little children. Just as Hansel and Gretel were eating her yummy door, she pounced on them and locked them inside!

"I shall fatten you up and eat you!" she said with a wicked laugh.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

The wicked witch locked Hansel in a cage. Then, she turned to Gretel and said, “You! Little girl! Help me light the oven! When it is hot, I shall cook your bother and eat him up!”

Poor Gretel was so afraid!

Gretel quickly thought of a plan to save her brother. Just as the witch bent to check if the oven was hot, she gave her a big push from behind.

The witch fell into the oven with a scream and Gretel quickly locked the oven door with the witch inside!

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Gretel rescued Hansel and the two children filled their pockets with all the witch's jewels. Finally, they managed to find their way back home and gave all the jewels to their mother and father.

Thanks to the clever children, the woodcutter and his family were never poor or hungry ever again!

LIVEWORKSHEETS