Charles I

1) Which of them is Charles I?

2) Write YES for the correct statement and NO for incorrect statements:

A. He is the only British king that has been executed

B. "Eleven years tyranny" was the name James I gave to his period of personal rule after he had dissolved parliament

C. Unlike his father, he maintained a friendly relationship with parliament

D. In 1605, a group of Catholic conspirators plotted to assassinate King Charles I.

E. During the reign of Charles I there was an uprising in Ireland.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3) Read the questions, then select the correct answer:

Who were his parents ? And did he have siblings?

a) James I and Anne of Denmark were his parents and his siblings were Elizabeth Stuart and Henry
b) James VI and Elizabeth I were his parents, he had no siblings.
c) John V and Henrietta Maria were his parents and his brother Buckingham
d) None of the above are correct

Why was he left behind when he was a child?

a) His sister had to marry a royal man
b) His brother left to become king of England
c) Both of his siblings died
d) His brother died and his sister had to take the throne and became queen
e) His sister had to marry a royal man and his brother died
f) a and b are correct

How was he as a child?

a) He was a sturdy and charming child
b) He was a sickly child
c) He was shy and had a stammer when talking
d) He was described as a brave and tall kid
e) C and B are correct

Why did he dissolve the parliament the first time?

a) It was a way to demonstrate the divine rights of kings.
b) The parliament was not trusted since they were planning to start a war against Spain.
c) Charles requested them money but the parliament refused the king's petition.
d) The parliament was trying to dethrone him since he did not fit in the role of a king.

How did he become king of Ireland and England?

a) Charles was the only heir when Elizabeth I of England passed away.
b) As his brother passed away Charles took his place.
c) His father James I and brother passed away so he was the only heir left.

During Charles I reign, how many times did the parliament meet?

a) 2 times
b) they were never able to since the king dissolved
c) 4 times
d) None of them are correct

What caused the execution of Charles I?

a) He was captured by spanish soldiers and then he was executed
b) Charles was accused of treason by the parliament and it led to his execution
c) The parliament took control and they betray the king to rule England

LIVEWORKSHEETS

READ THE EVENTS DURING CHARLES I REIGN AND MATCH.

1625	Charles was presented with the Petition of Right a declaration of the "rights and liberties of the subject"
1629	Attempt to arrest five parliamentary leaders
1628	Charles escaped the Siege of Oxford and surrendered at Newark .
4 January 1642	Charles I succeeded his father .
1646	He dissolved Parliament again.

Learn more from Charles I with this funny video !!

LIVEWORKSHEETS