

WHAT DO YOU KNOW ABOUT THE COMICS UNIVERSE?

CANON

FANON

FANDOM

ELSEWORLDS

RELAUNCH

REBOOT

RUN

RETCON

CONTINUITY

MULTIVERSE

..... the fans of a particular person, series, comics etc.

..... refers to the consistency in the depiction of characters, objects, places and the plot itself over time.

..... a consecutive string of issues of a particular comic series.

..... is a term denoting that the material is "official", written by the original authors, and therefore accepted as "true" to the fictional setting.

..... are the concepts and ideas that are used in fanfiction. It is what fan communities have collectively decided are part of an accepted storyline or character interpretation.

..... stories that are set in alternate realities and are not connected to main continuity.

..... a new start to an established fictional universe. They can be hard or soft.

..... refers to the idea of having parallel Earths where the same superheroes exist, but with differences in location, people and historical events.

..... means "retroactive continuity" and means changing previously established facts in a narrative to correct errors in continuity.

..... used when a run is cancelled and started over with a new #1 issue.