

CHARLES I.

Task 1. Read and choose the correct answers:

- Charles I was:
 - James V's son.
 - Protestant.
 - Cromwell's most famous opponent.
- Charles was really:
 - self-effacing
 - big-headed
 - meek
- The most common causes of arguments between Charles and Parliament were:
 - money
 - rules
 - religion
 - a y c are correct
- The "Eleven Years Tyranny" was a period in which:
 - members of Parliament were not allowed to meet at Westminster.
 - people suffered from famine.
 - James VI did not recognize the Parliament.
- In 1635 Charles ordered that everyone in the country should:
 - run the country to collect money for the king.
 - be Catholic
 - pay a tax called "Ship money" for Navy's running.
- John Hampden:
 - refused to pay the new tax.
 - was put on trial, but was not found guilty of anything.
 - was not a recognized, powerful man
- In 1642 Charles went to Parliament to:
 - come to an agreement with them.
 - arrest five of their most important members.
 - ask them for money to fight.

Task 2: Are these statements TRUE OR FALSE?

- The first significant battle fought on English soil was the Battle of Naseby. TRUE/FALSE.
- Charles didn't enjoy support in the north and west of England, in Wales and Ireland TRUE/FALSE.
- Parliament controlled the much wealthier areas in the south and east of England TRUE/FALSE.
- To win the war Charles needed to capture Scotland. TRUE/FALSE.
- The Parliament created a centralized army with central funding and direction TRUE/FALSE.

By Shoshanna Rodríguez, Cecilia Goday and Karina Martínez.

