Nonfiction Text Features

Match the definition with the correct feature.

1. A nonfiction text feature whose purpose to identify the topic of the text is _____

2. A nonfiction text feature whose purpose to tell the definition of some words found in the text is _____

3. A nonfiction text feature which divides the text into sections and explains what the sections will be about is called _____

4. A nonfiction text feature which explains what a photograph of illustration is about is called _____

5. A nonfiction text features which tells what page the reader can find certain topics is called _____

6. A feature that tells about the book's title, author, illustrator and publisher. What feature is it?

7. A nonfiction text feature which shows what something looks like(taken with a camera) is called

8. A nonfiction text features which shows what something looks like(drawn by an artist) is called index

title page

caption

glossary

title

photograph

illustration

subheading

LIVEWORKSHEETS