The Stranger

Chapters 1-2

Correct the wrong information. Some sentences have no mistakes.

1. On 21st October, 1964 a man arrived in the village of Woodland.

2. It was late in the evening and he was looking for a guest house.

3. One of the villagers told him Mrs. Harrison had a spare room.

4. He gave him directions to Mrs. Harrison's house.

5. The next day, the stranger looked round the village.

6. He introduced himself to the villagers.

7. He attended evening mass with the villagers.

8. The stranger left the village once mass had finished.

9. About a month later the stranger returned to settle down in the village.

10. He rented old Mr. Smith's house.

11. He reconditioned the house and opened a hotel.

12. The villagers were delighted with The Corner Shop.

13. The Corner Shop would satisfy the villagers' needs at reasonable prices.

14. The Corner Shop would also sell village products to tourists.

15. The villagers refused to share the profits with Dave Slatin.

16. Dave Slatin left The Corner Shop in charge of Anna.

LIVEWORKSHEETS