

Instituto Universitario de Caldas

"Comparatives and superlatives"

1. Write the comparative and superlative form of the following adjectives.

Adjective	Comparative form	superlative form
 Dirty :	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>
 Uninterested :	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>
 Warm :	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>
 Strong :	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>
 Fresh :	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>
 Chubby :	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>
 Guilty :	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>
 Poor :	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>

2. Complete the sentences by using the comparative or superlative form of the adjectives in parentheses.

 February is the <input type="text"/> (short) month in the year.
 A hippo is <input type="text"/> (peaceful) than a tiger.
 My house is <input type="text"/> (small) than your house.
 A tiger is <input type="text"/> (intelligent) than a lizard.
 Mery is <input type="text"/> (beautiful) than Nora.
 Jim is the <input type="text"/> (good) player in the football team.
 A lizard is <input type="text"/> (long) than a dog.
 That is the <input type="text"/> (comfortable) sofa in our house.
 Tim is <input type="text"/> (happy) than Harry.
 Monday is the <input type="text"/> (bad) day of the week.
 Sam is the <input type="text"/> (popular) in the class.